The summer drive to bring vacationists and residents of rural districts back to the House of Israel is one of the many activities featuring the national movement to raise $3,500,000. The purpose of the fund is to enable the Union to carry out a ten-year program of expansion. The campaign will last for thirty-five weeks, and to attain the goal it is necessary to raise $100,000 a week.

Discussing the work of organization to date, Mr. Strauss said:

"We have succeeded in organizing the various forces of the different cities and communities throughout the country and hourly the movement is receiving greater impetus. Our appeal for support has been directed mainly at the young Jews of America. Our great rank and file of Jewish youth from one end of the country to the other has responded to the call without reservation. It is largely due to the enthusiasm of our young men that we were able in less than a week to assemble the machinery of a great country-wide organization as the vehicle through which Jews of America will be made familiar with the potentialities of the Union for serving the cause of Judaism in the United States."

J. Walter Freiberg, President of the Union, outlined the purposes of the missionary enterprise as follows:

"It is our purpose to keep within the fold the scattered groups of Jews in small towns throughout the country who are without religious instruction and training. Either we must hold them or lose them. Our records show at least a thousand towns where this condition obtains. There may be twice that number. We now have the support of rabbis in this worthy project who give much of their time to it, but this is totally inadequate to cope with the situation. We need a large group of rabbis who will devote their entire time to it. They will travel from one Jewish outpost to another carrying the message of Israel.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Editor Jewish Monitor:

The undersigned of this city attended the Confirmation Services at Temple Mt. Sinai of El Paso, Sunday, May 23rd. His niece, Blooma Borschow, was one of the confirmands of a large class. The services and the program were rendered in splendid style which was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. In honor of their daughter, Blooma, Mr. and Mrs. Max Borschow had open house from 7 until 10 p. m. All members of the congregation were invited, and all that attended reported a very good time.

Rabbi Zielonka deserves very much credit for the splendid work that he is doing for the Temple, and the city of El Paso. It is the belief of the writer that El Paso is indeed blessed by having such men and women as Dr. and Mrs. Zielonka. They are surely entitled to the support of the whole congregation.

Yours truly,

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.

The State of Texas, in the District Court, Tarrant County, Texas, June Term, A. D. 1920.

To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Tarrant County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded, That by making publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the County of Tarrant four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, you summon S. S. Wile, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the County Court of Tarrant County, for Civil Cases, to be holden in and for the County of Tarrant, at the Court House thereof, in the City of Fort Worth, on the first Monday in July, the same being the 5th day of July A. D. 1920, File No. being 17357, then and there to answer the petition of Jack Ayers, filed in said Court, on the 31st day of March A. D. 1920, against the said S. S. Wile and alleging in substance as follows, to-wit: On March 13 1920, the defendant executed and delivered to plaintiff his certain check on the National Bank of Commerce of Fort Worth, Texas, payable to the order of Majestic Theatre in the sum of $249.50, whereby he became liable and bound to pay to plaintiff the said sum together with legal interest thereon from and after said date.

Plaintiff alleges that he presented said check to said bank for payment and that the same was not paid on account of insufficient funds and though often requested so to do the defendant has failed and refused and still fails and refuses to pay to plaintiff said sum to plaintiff's damage in the aforesaid sum.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for citation according to law; that upon final hearing hereof he have judgment for said damages, for costs of suit and for such other relief, special and general, in law and in equity, to which he may be justly entitled.

Herein Fail Not, but have you then and there before said Court, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, Bart Mynatt, Clerk of the County Court of Tarrant County, for Civil Cases.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, in Fort Worth, this 8th day of April A. D. 1920.
